BERLIN - The German Government today unveiled plans for the opening of the Dresden-Prague Railway. As soon as the rubble from the avalanche which destroyed 10 Miles of the Railway this Spring is cleared away, construction will begin. With the main communications channel re-opened, the German and Austro-Hungarian nations should be able to co-ordinate their military effort. Rumor has it that the Austrian Commander has been killed, though, as the Germans have not been able to locate him.

Sigmund Freud, prominent Viennese expatriot and author of the book, expressed satisfaction at this long-delayed action. Political observers speculate that the Italian role in recent Bavarian setbacks was an important factor in the decision. Dr. Freud commented "Obviously the pope's self-fellation fantasies have clouded his mental process."

PARIS (OCT 10.) Repeated efforts by the Government have failed to elicit a response from the Peerists ruling in London. Consequently the French People and the French Government have little choice but to declare war upon the Peerists.

PARIS (OCT 14.) President Bacchus announced today that France will hereinafter support the Stuart claim to the Throne of England, Ireland, Scotland. (ED:-Leave Ireland out of it and I will go along with you.)

BREST (Nov. 25.) The Stuarts have returned to England. Leading an invasion force of nearly a quarter of a million men the Stuart King succeeded in overthrowing English Resistance in Wales. Nearly all opposition has ceased, as the remnants of the Peerists forces flee towards the Midlands and London.
